

3 STEPS TO YOUR NEXT PROMOTION

1

BE VOCAL.

Tell people what you want, and choose the right people to tell. Be curious and ask questions.

2

BE PREPARED.

Have a portfolio of your work and accomplishments, with data and results. Know your unique value proposition. We all have one.

3

BE INVESTED.

The best leaders know that growth is a continuum, not an end goal with a finish line. Invest in your growth and learning so you are ready for the next level.
